DO NOT REMOVE

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time—

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

DEDICATION

In memoriam to Veral Anthony who went to meet the Master June 3, 1956, after having completed one year at Lee College.

The Vindagua staff takes pride in dedicating the 1957 annual to one whose footsteps of faith are so deeply imprinted on our campus. Veral's brilliant testimony now shines even brighter as a guide to those who knew him. His cup of life was full. His testimony of complete trust in God keeps him alive in our hearts.

"He was—words fail to say what he was.
Ask what he should be. That he was."

FOREWORD

Footsteps—symbols of the past of every man—whether echoing a life of simplicity and fading away or remaining freshly printed in the sands of time.

Nineteen hundred years ago a sun-tanned Nazarene, the Son of a carpenter, walked the shores of Galilee leaving a perfect footprint with a clarity that, though made only with a soft step of a Judean sandal, will never fade.

Those steps that reached out to challenge lives, heal sick, comfort broken hearts, have never been retrodden, for they were printd by the limitless love of God and continue to challenge us today to follow IN HIS STEPS. Yes, the King of Kings, Jesus our Saviour, came to the earth as a man leaving us an example that we might also leave a clear, firm footprint as we walk with Him through life. Lives of students are mingled here as they follow His footsteps by way of Lee College to prepare for life

Gone—echoing joy, regrets, sorrow, and happiness, are your footsteps for this past year. How fresh are their prints? Have they come near being IN HIS STEPS?

In your hands you hold a misty written record of faces and names that recall moments—moments that are gone, moments that will remain footprints in time. You cannot reverse your course, or erase its prints, but if it has been faulty you may alter your pathway now by heeding the call of the Master to follow IN HIS STEPS!

Terry Hathaway, Editor

"I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

C'est Fini

"Little drops of water, with grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land.
So the little moments, humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages of eternity.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

COACHES

The students who received physical education and coaching from Mr. Hubert Black and Mrs. Betty Hockensmith will remember and appreciate their untiring efforts of these instructions.

Not only do they promote the athletic program, but they imbed within each student such traits as honesty, good sportsmanship, consideration for others, and many such qualities that motivate strong character and mold successful men and women of tomorrow.

MISSIONS BOARD AT WORK

The Missions Department is hard at work in its eouneil room in Cleveland. The members of the board and staff are, left to right: D. A. Biggs, pastor at Middletown, Ohio; T. R. Morse, pastor at Lenoir City, Tennessee; J. H. Walker, Sr., overseer of Southeast Texas; Wade H. Horton, Field Representative; W. E. Johnson, Chairman of the Board and overseer of Georgia; Paul H. Walker, Foreign Missions Executive Secretary; T. L. Forester, pastor at West Flint, Michigan; S. E. Jennings, pastor at Huntington, West Virginia; A. M. Phillips, overseer of Florida; Johnnie Owens, Missions Representative; Miss Aliee Josephsen, Secretary.

The Board members meet four times annually, gratuitously serving the Church and the fifty-six nations into which she has extended herself. For example, I should like to say that during the last General Assembly the Board sat for forty-seven hours in daily sessions and until one and two o'clock in the morning, besides trying to attend the Assembly and General Counell.

Upon the shoulders of these men rests a tremendous responsibility for world missions. The prevalent eoncern in each of their hearts is to make the missions dollar reach the farthest and do the most in the shortest time possible. They earnestly eovet your prayers. Their slogan is based on Romans 1:16, "The whole Gospel for the whole man in the whole world."

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time—

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.
